

THE 8th RESEARCH AND METHODOLOGICAL MEDIA LITERACY CONFERENCE

Critical thinking in the age of toxic content

March 13-14, 2020

Kyiv, Ukraine

NEWSLETTER

Audience: staff of pre-school educational establishments, general secondary schools, research and academic personnel of higher educational teachers' training establishments, institutes for continuing teachers' training, scholars, media representatives, self-governance authorities, civil society representatives and media literacy experts.

Main conference activities:

- Media literacy in pre-school and primary education;
- Media literacy in secondary school;
- Media literacy in higher education;
- Media literacy for life-long education.

All the expenses are covered by organizers (trips, accommodation and catering).

Deadline for submission of conference application forms is February 21, 2020.

Summarizing the conference results, we will freely publish the online collection of articles available at the AUP's website: www.aup.com.ua and at the "Media Education and Literacy" portal: www.medialiteracy.org.ua

Articles are available for submission under the following e-mail address: yana_sid@aup.com.ua until February 21, 2020.

FILL IN THE FORM OF PARTICIPANT>>>

A CONFERENCE REPORT OR AN ARTICLE (OR BOTH) IS OBLIGATORY FOR PARTICIPATION.

Essential requirements for the articles:

The structure and content of the article should correspond to the topic of the conference, modern requirements and contain the following necessary elements:

1. The problem statement and its connection with the research and practical goals.
2. Analysis of recent research and publications, initiating possible solutions to the problem the author is concerned about; The unsolved aspects relating to the issue under analysis of the article should be outlined.
3. Research goals.
4. Introduction with the full rationale for received research findings.
5. Conclusions and perspectives for further research in a chosen field of study.
6. References in alphabetical order. Citations and quotations are given in accordance with the current State Standard.
7. Article volume may range from 5 to 12 pages.

Formatting:

1. The upper right corner of the page should contain the author's name and surname, job and position (fully without abbreviations). The title is given in capital letters, in bold, and in the middle of the page. References should be placed in the end. Summary and the key words in Ukrainian are given single spaced. Summary and the key words in English are given after references.
2. In-text citations are given in parentheses after a quotation or paraphrase. In-text citations should necessarily contain the page number(s).
3. The contents (reliability of facts, quotations, proper names, etc.) are solely the responsibility of the authors.
4. References are given single spaced after the article.
5. Conference materials are published in the author's version, so we are asking thoroughly to edit the articles beforehand in accordance with the modern terminology and spelling.
6. Texts of articles should be submitted in Times New Roman, size 14, single-line spacing.
7. Articles are submitted to the following e-mail address: yana_sid@aup.com.ua

Selection of participants is carried out on a competitive basis.

In case of any questions regarding participation in the conference, please, contact Yulia Huza, e-mail: y.guza@aup.com.ua; cell: (067) 638 71 62 or Yulia Kulyk, e-mail: info@aup.com.ua; cell: (050) 734 45 79.